Cirrus Solutions Announces Zamp Solar Training Program
New Training Program for Zamp Solar Begins in September

Cirrus Solutions announces the initial training schedule for its Zamp Solar technician training program in partnership with Zamp Solar. This training is part of a program that will allow RV technicians and dealerships to become Zamp Certified Sales, Installation and Service centers. The initial sessions are scheduled for Sept 6/7 and Sept 13/14 at the Cirrus Learning Center (CLC) in Reno, NV. Self-paced and web classes are also available.

For more details and to register for attendance, visit <http://cirrussolutions.com/CLC/Zamp-Solar-Certification-Course>.

The CLC, opened earlier this year specializes training to include:

- RV Customer 101 Courses
- New and Current RV Technician Certification Courses
- Partner and Industry Training (including Vendors, Suppliers, and Manufacturers)
- Cirrus Solutions DMS Dealers and End-Users

The CLC team is led by Sam Cruz, Director of Training. Sam brings 16 years of experience and knowledge in conceptualizing and implementing training programs for lean operational workflow in fleet and dealership service departments. Sam is a member of the RVTI Focus Group for curriculum and credentialing, Lean Six Sigma Black Belt, Certified Project Manager, Certified RV Technician.
